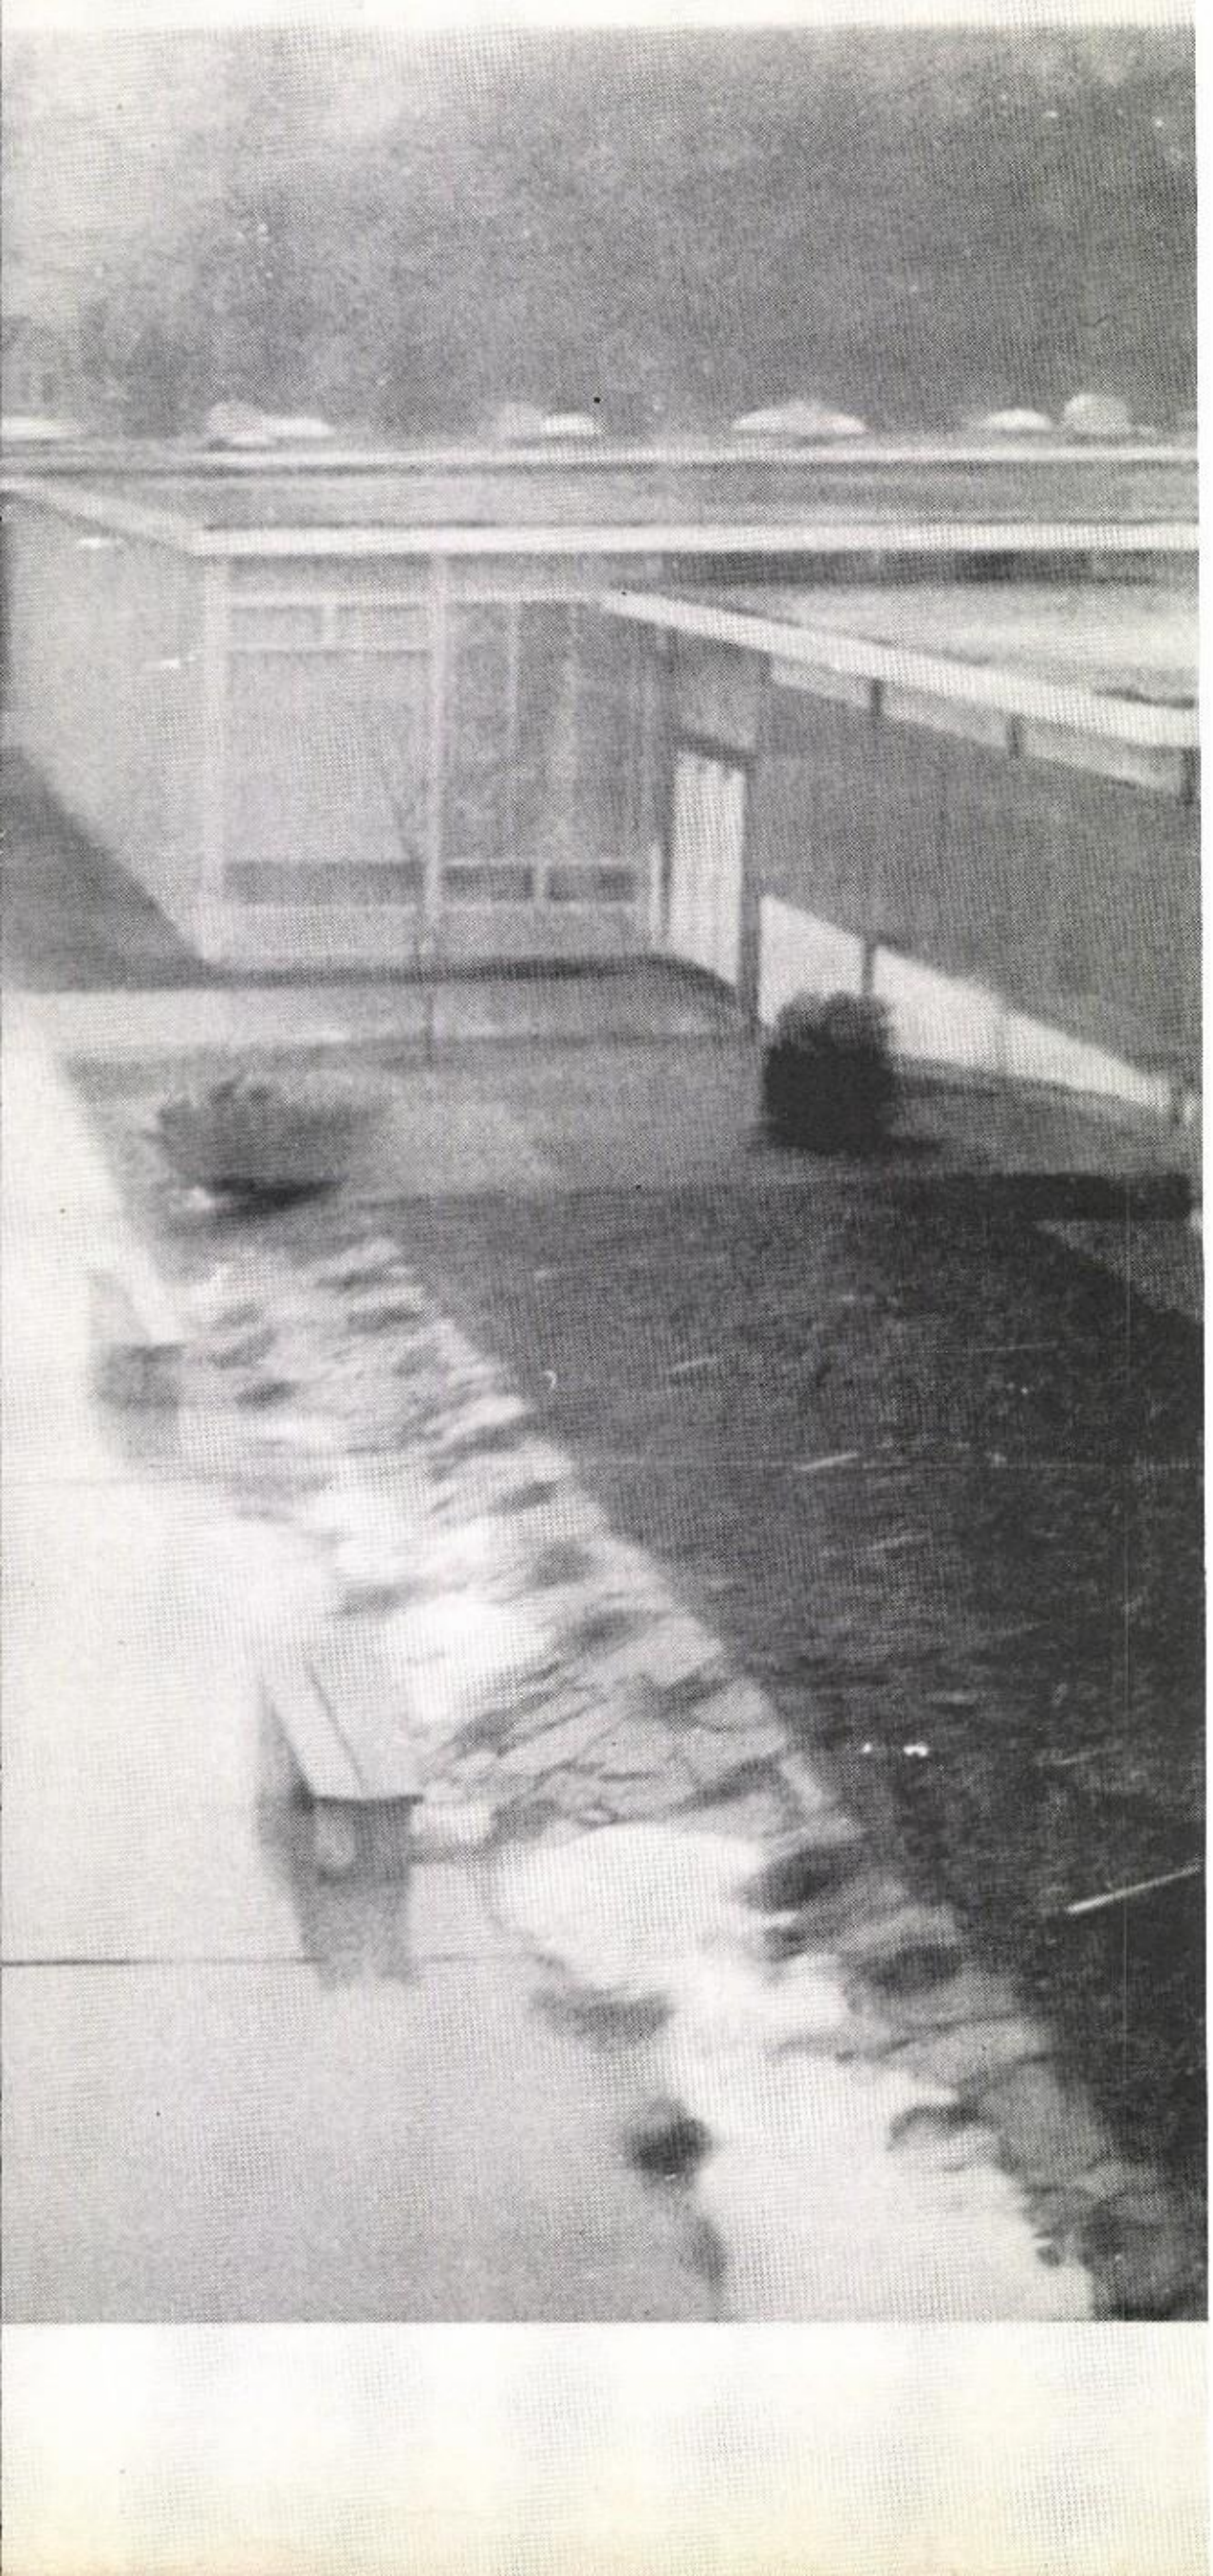
THE ANNUAL



The Annual 1962
Ithaca High School
Ithaca, New York

Dedication

MR. FRANK R. BLISS

In 1923, Mr. Bliss came to teach business at Ithaca High School. Nine years later, in 1932, he became Principal here. Now, in 1962, he is graduating with our class to a well-earned retirement.

As a Principal, Mr. Bliss has led the school with a steady hand and keen eye through problems and periods of hard times as well as through periods of routine and good order. He has worked in a complex, impersonal administration, but has not forgotten the individual student.

He has grown with the school and the school has grown under his wise and patient leadership. Through the years his manner has been quiet, but his reforms have been sure and effective. He has exercised prudence and sagacity in his actions. For thirty-nine years Mr. Bliss has been more than a figurehead for the school, more than the man behind the desk in the office. He has been a friend and counsellor, an understanding leader, and most of all, a man whose presence in this good school will long be remembered. To him the Class of 1962 is proud to dedicate their ANNUAL.

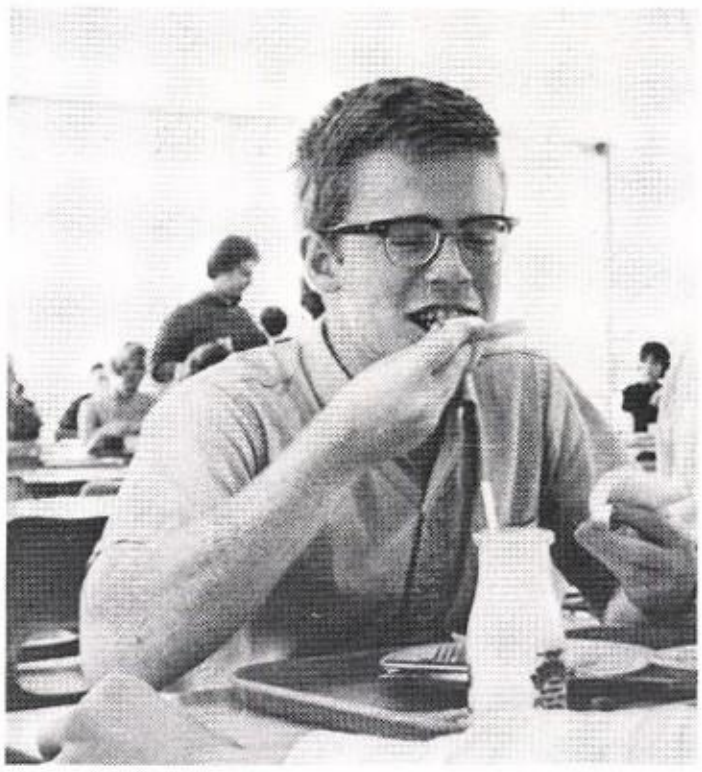
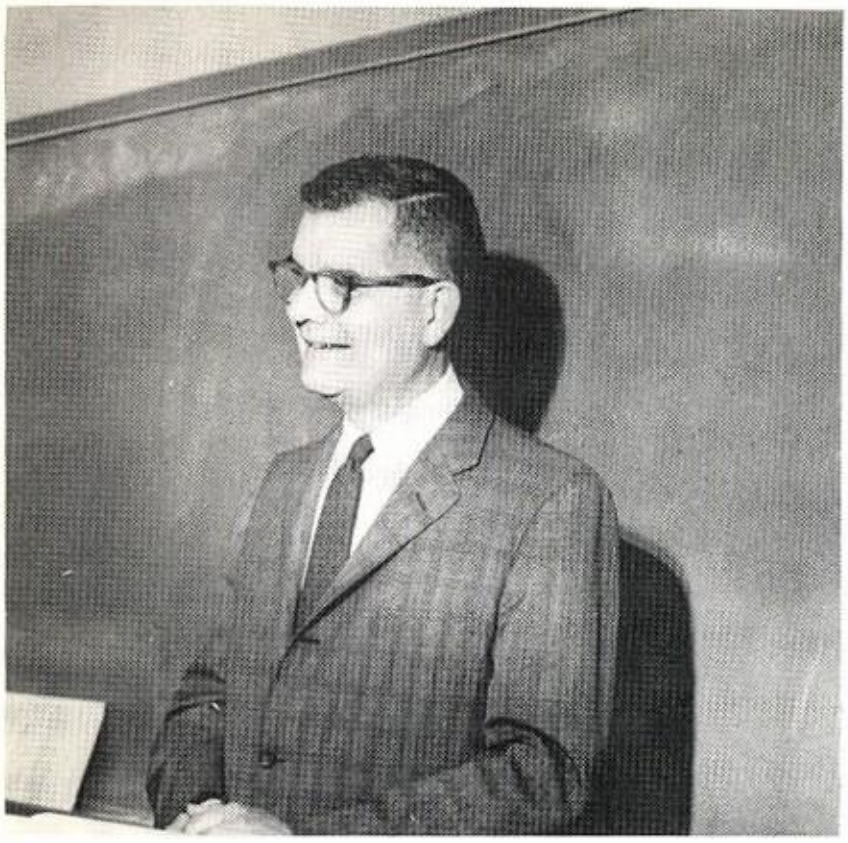
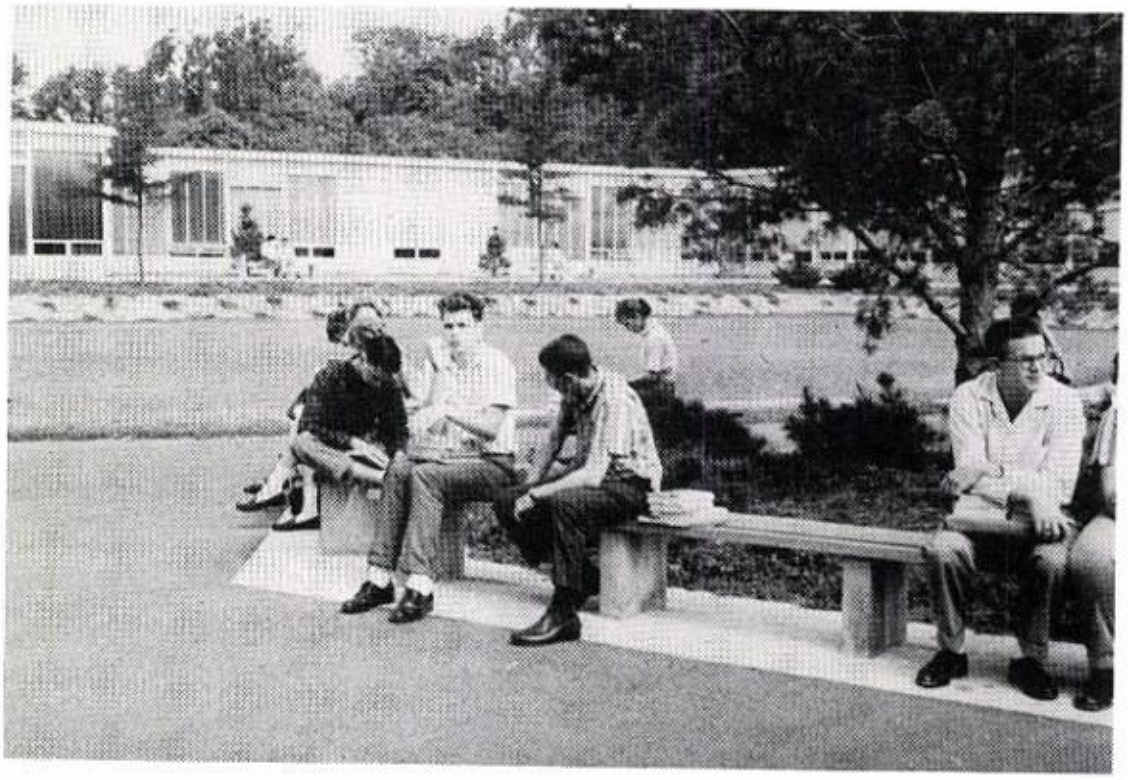
A day at Ithaca High School is crammed with the myriad sensory impressions which will forever mean "high school" to us. The sun clear and bright over G-building in the morning, the deafening clatter of heels resounding in the polished hallways, the clangor and laughter and steamy smells of noonhour in the cafeteria, and the final disgorging of clustered students into a sun-warmed afternoon . . . all the private emotions we feel at these memories of a day merge into a warm and vital portrait of the years we have spent here.

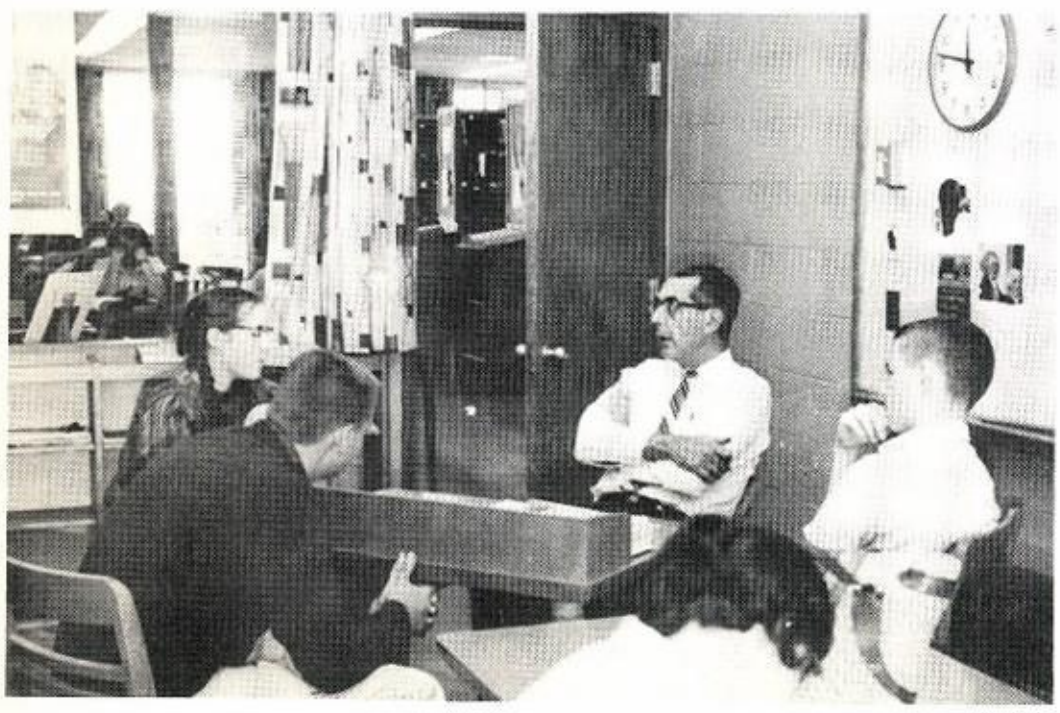


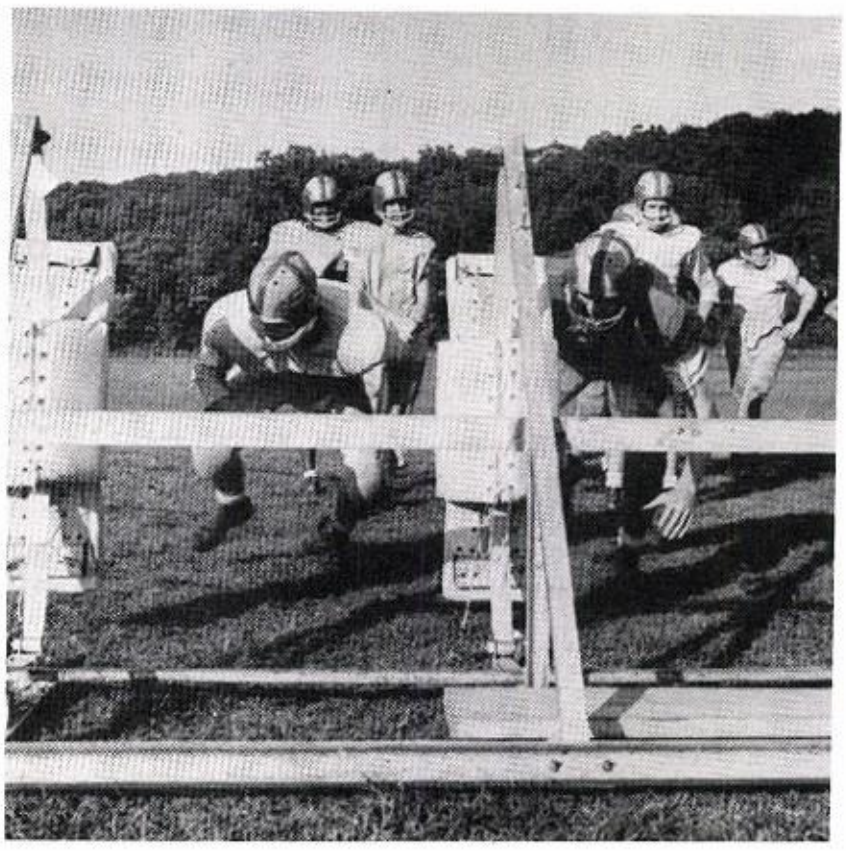
The class of 1962 has a special memory, however, which sets us apart from those to come: we are the last of the "old-timers", carrying with us the fading impressions of a sophomore year in a huge, dark fortress which now has a new name and a new set of inmates. Arriving for our junior year at a new and spacious campus was like bursting from a cave into open air . . . but perhaps at times some of us grew a little nostalgic for dark, familiar walls and that enforced togetherness of the Old School.

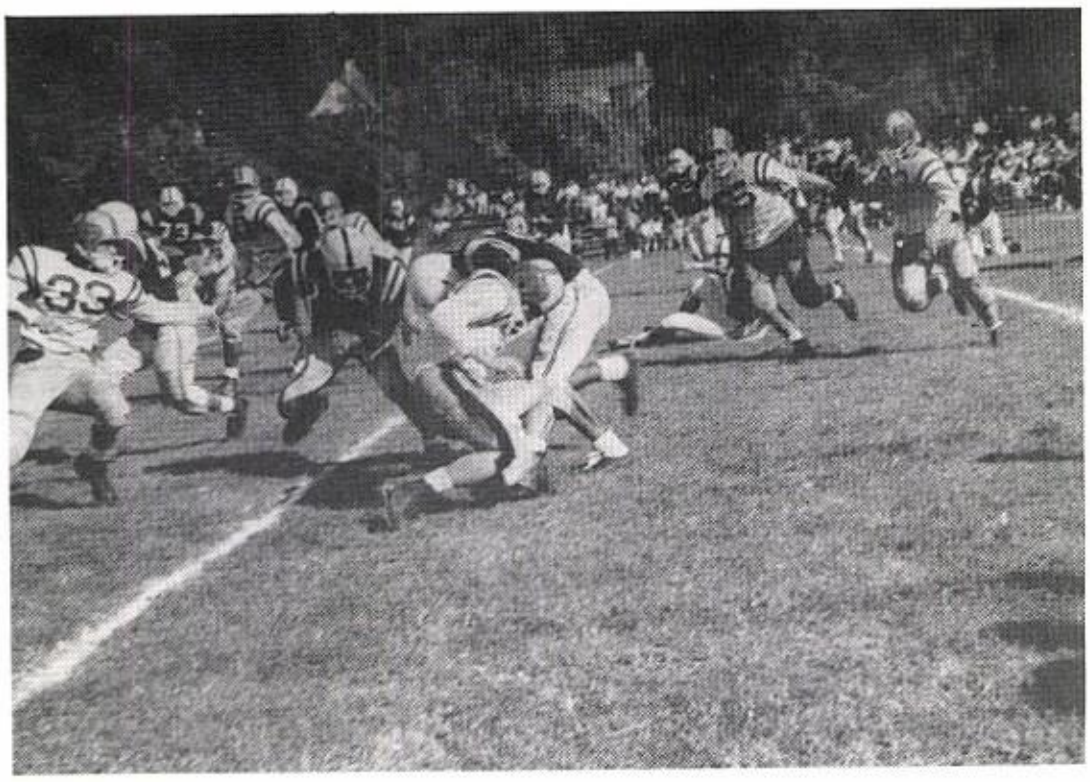


The experiences of the senior year were not unlike what we had anticipated, and yet were so much richer than the narrow scope of expectation can encompass. The strange combination of feelings, of pride and satisfaction at having made real achievements, of concern for how we would do in the future, made this year a mixture of elations and disappointments.



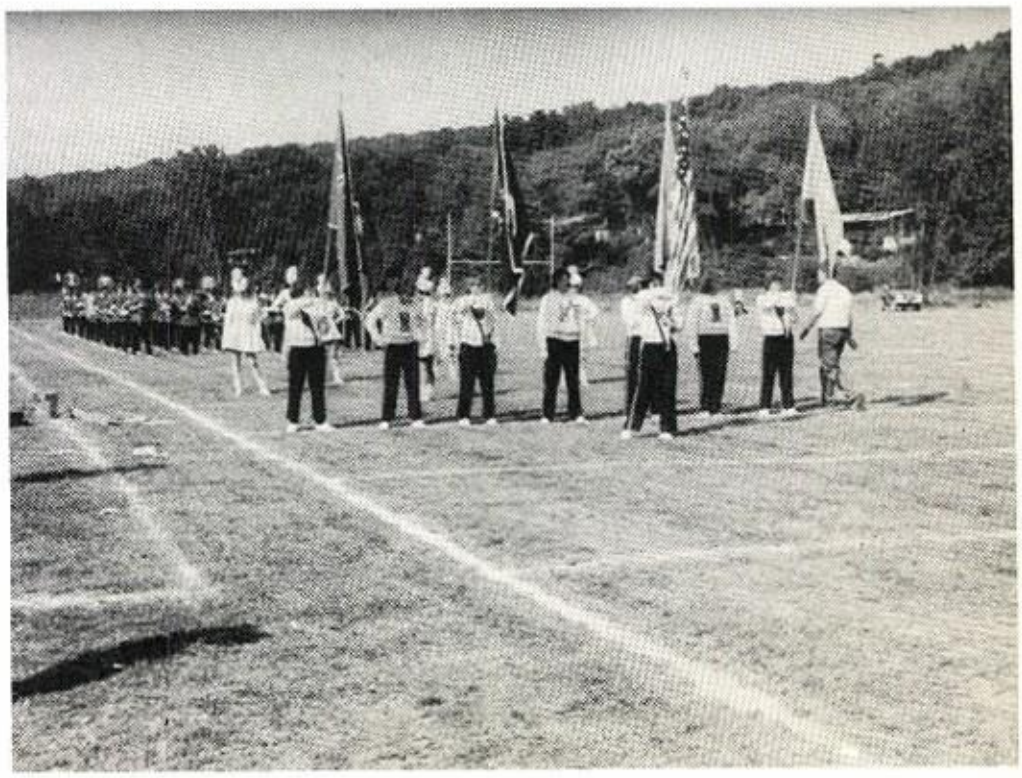


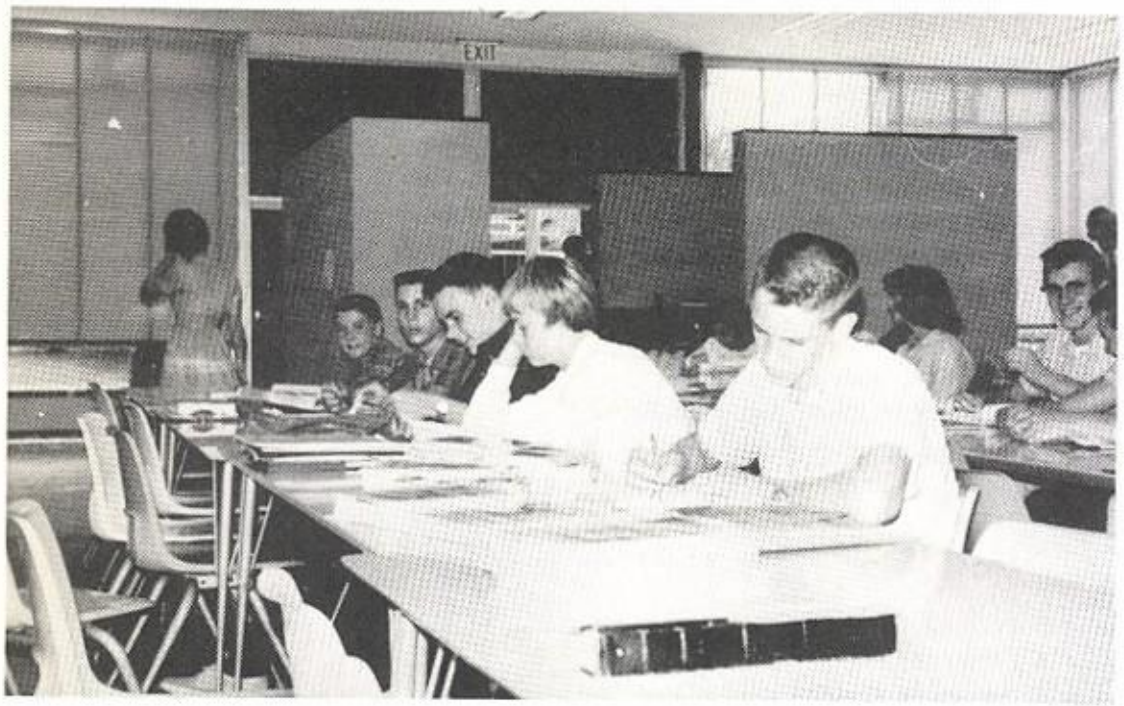


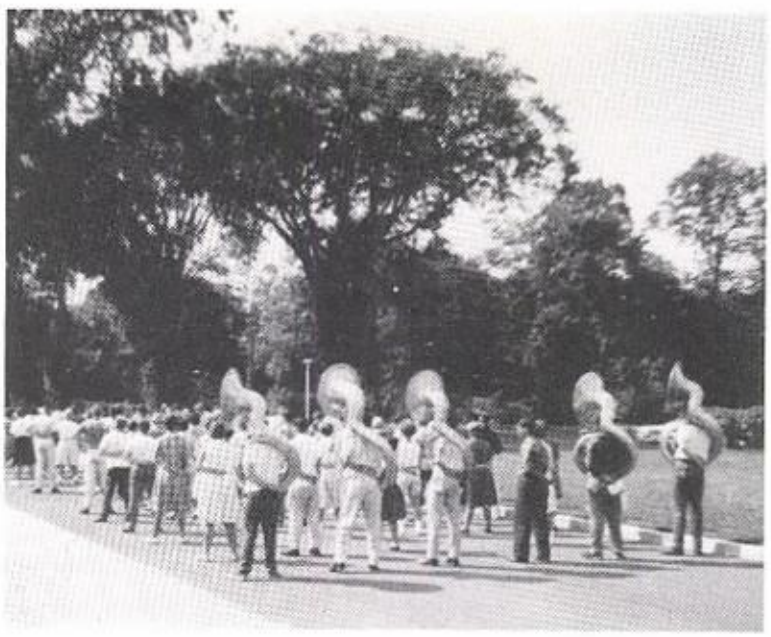


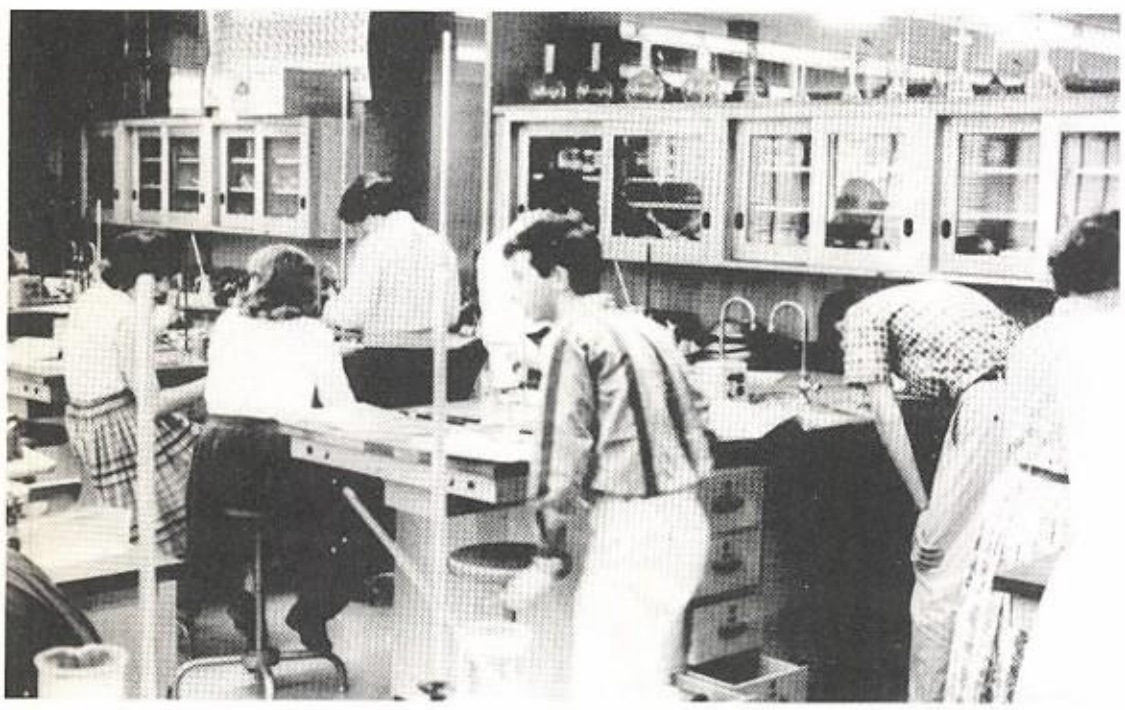
We recall the events of this past year which have made lasting impressions, and also the fleeting ones which were significant only for the moment when they occurred. Dances, College Boards, Regents and National Merit Scholarship Exams, the choir candy sale, the band trip, football games, the Tattler all merge into a kaleidoscopic panorama of the 1961-62 year. We suffered through the endless college and job applications and gloried in the blizzards which gave us unexpected freedom from the daily grind.

The seniors had their special activities which were at once so exhilarating and so much more ordinary than we had expected. Somehow we have come through it all, and every milestone passed has added another coveted battle scar.









Taking the luxury of the moment to look back, these years seem to us something more important than we can as yet realize, and we are glad for both the pain and pleasure we have known, as well as for the seeds of ideas which have taken root in us.

At the end we leave, without false regrets, the old focal point of our days. We take with us the memories of a day, with all its sights and sounds and smells entangled forever in our senses, ever waiting for the sight of a friend or the sound of a phrase to call up the whole world of Ithaca High School and bind together our scattered lives.

They who educate children well, are more to be honored than they who produce them; for these only gave them life, those the art of living well.

In Memoriam

Miss Dora M. DePew

The world was made for her to hold.
She glowed with love for life.
Her students
Her friends
Her math
She gave her warmth and personality.
She taught with originality and spontaneity.
She worked to improve the math program, and was responsible for many exciting reforms in the curriculum.
She had many friends, and was a wonderful friend herself.
She gave more than she received.
She demanded little from the world.
She always tried "to be kinder than was necessary.

She radiated interest for life.
for Music . . . her favorite composers were Brahms, Beethoven, and Tchaikovsky
. . . her favorite musicals were "South Pacific" and "Carousel"
. . . she could whistle beautifully for Drama . . . she stole the faculty-student show when she played the lead role in "Our Miss Brooks" for Stamp-Collecting, Automobiles, Photography, Antiques, Canasta, Books, and always Mathematics.

She held the world through her understanding and love . . .
and when she let it go, she left behind her memory,
the memory of a rare person who was genuinely kind.

Seniors

An' the on'y thing you got to look at is that ever time they's a little step fo'ward, she may slip back a little, but she never slips clear back. You can prove that an' that makes the whole thing right. An' that means they wasn't no waste even if it seemed like they was.

—John Steinbeck

Underclassmen

The temper of our youth has become more restless, more critical, more challenging. Flaming youth has become a flaming question. And youth comes to us wanting to know what we may propose to do about a society that hurts so many of them.

Band Trip

On November 21, 1961, the Ithaca High School Concert Band and the "Little Red" Marching Band set out on a concert tour of Michigan and Ohio via Eastern Canada and New York State. The tight band schedule included: performing in the J.L. Hudson Parade in Detroit, Michigan on Thanksgiving Day; a concert at the home plant of the National Cash Register Company in Dayton, Ohio; a half-time show before some 80,000 spectators at the Cleveland Browns — New York Giants football game on November 26; and a concert in Buffalo, New York on Monday, November 27.

In preparation for this trip the band carried on a series of money-raising projects to cover the numerous expenses of almost 100 persons for a six day tour. Included in the projects were a chicken barbecue (at which the band served about 1700 people), a ham dinner, a magazine subscription drive, and a host of ingenious individual projects from bottle collecting to house painting. Not only did the band raise the necessary $7100, but the members found the time to practice three times per week for the marching band and two for the concert band.

It is the Ithaca High School Band's unrelenting search for perfection which gives it the remarkable spirit and drive to undertake an assignment as demanding as a six day performing tour. Mr. Frank L. Battisti, director and dynamo of the band, has stated it this way: "Excellence is a way of life. When each member gives as much of himself as he can to the whole, we can achieve something great." Something of this idea was echoed in the minds of the band members as they stood to play on the wide field of the Cleveland Stadium, conscious of the eyes of television viewers throughout the country. And it was still with them when they straggled from their buses into the arms of their waiting families, six days after they had set out, with the satisfying weariness of those who know they have given their best.

Sports

Then strip, lads, and toil, though sharp be the weather,
And if, by mischance, you should happen to fall,
There are worse things in life than a tumble on heather,
A life is itself but a game of football.

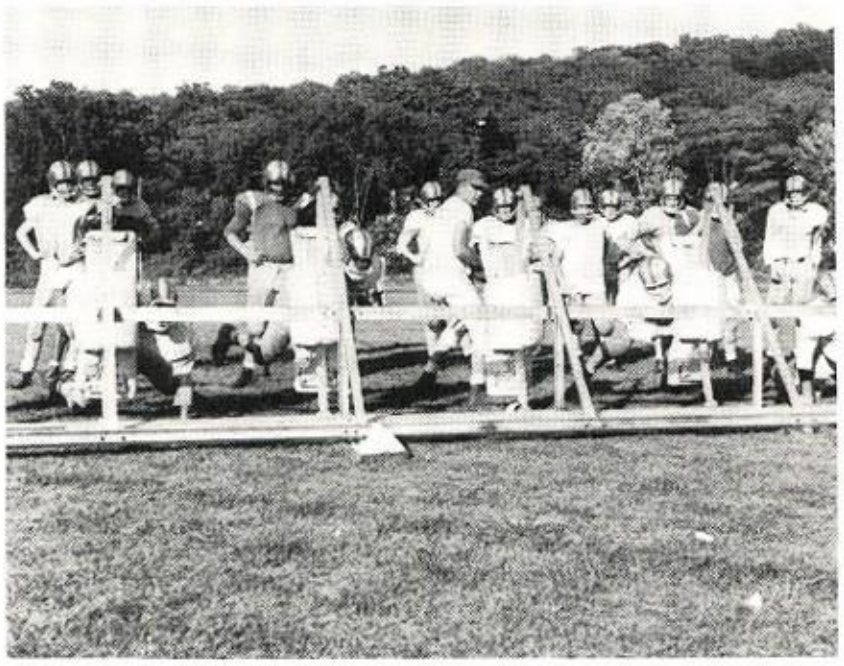
Varsity Football

The IHS Little Red football team won four games of the seven played this season, losing three by small margins. Coach Joe Moresco was pleased with the team spirit and looks forward to next year when he hopes there will also be an increase in school spirit for games.



Team members with the coach during an awards assembly go through a play which was tested often during games.

J. V. Football
